

Send your grandchild a letter.

As a grandparent, you have encouragement to offer and real-life experiences to share.

Choose one prompt from each section and start that letter!
A letter from you can help your grandchild power through the rest of their semester!

Encourage them

- One of your best qualities is....
- My favorite memory with you is....
- I'm proud of you for....
- My favorite verse is....
- My prayer for you this year is...

Share your experience

- Have you ever been through a hardship like COVID-19? What did you learn from it?
- Can you share an instance when you wanted to give up on something? What did you learn from it?

When I was your age...

- What were you doing in life?
- What was your favorite meal or food to snack on?
- What was the new technology?
- Did you have a job? What was it?
- Where were you living?
- What clothes/hairstyles were in fashion?
